Sunday Morning Sermon Series!

Why do bad things happen? Doc shared some great words Sunday as we continued to look at the life of Joseph and the trials he faced. It's amazing that thousands of years later we still react to trials in the same way they did then and that the God of the Bible is still the God of today and provides answers and a way out of those trials.

This week we will look at a hidden chapter in the story of Joseph. I have to admit when I read about his life in Genesis 37-50 I shake my head and wonder why chapter 38 is in there. Let's check it out Sunday together. Bring a friend! ~ Andy B.

Fall Busyness

By Jody Terrell, Youth Minister

As I return from a two week vacation, my thoughts turn to the fall and all of the things that come with it. This time of year marks the beginning of school and sports and band and lots of other extracurricular activities for students. Parents will be busy taking their kids to events and the busyness of life can overwhelm us.

As I am thinking about all that I have to prepare for and do to get ready, I realized that I am so easily distracted from spending time with Christ and making any effort to draw close to him. I want to challenge everyone, including myself, to make time to seek Christ daily, in spite of our task filled lives. I remember a time when I asked a girlfriend if she was ok with me spending the evening with some of my guy friends instead of hanging out with her, she said sure. I spent time with my friends and then when I saw her the next day she was upset. I asked her why she was upset when I asked her and she said it was ok to hang out with my friends? She said "I want you to WANT to spend time with me, I don't want to force you".

This is how I see my relationship with Christ. He won't force me to read, or pray. He wants me to put forth effort to know him more. We must spend quality time with God if we ever expect to really know him. I encourage you all to join me in this effort.

New to KCC or not sure what a Life Group is? Life Groups are small group Bible studies meeting in people's homes centered around Sunday Sermons from KCC. Taking a cue from Acts 2:42-47, Life Groups enjoy a meal together, fellowship, study, & prayer. Life Groups begin meeting the week of Sept. 11th. Sign up for a Life Group!

Volunteer of the Week

Anthony Torres & Josh Bell!

Anthony and Josh work at KAIR every Tuesday and do whatever they need.

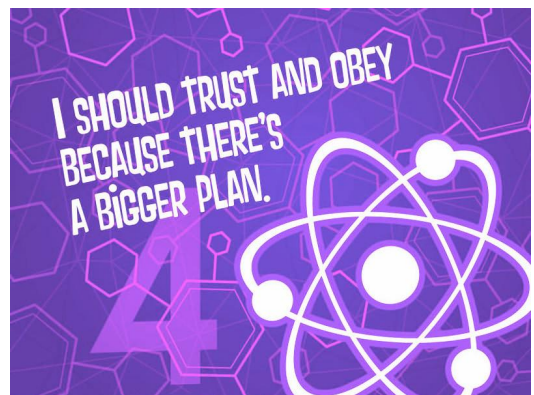

Thank you Anthony & Josh for serving! ~ Jody

KidStuf is THIS SUNDAY at 11:00am in the Lower Level for all kids Kindergarten through 5th Grade!

In the final week of August, we'll discover that God's promises to Abraham are starting to come true. Abraham's wife, Sarah, gives birth to a son. They name him Isaac. But then in Genesis 18, 21, 22, we discover that God asks Abraham to sacrifice his only son. Abraham trusted what he knew about God and obeyed believing that God would make a way of escape for Isaac. Eventually, Abraham's family becomes a great nation and another Son would arrive on the planet. Jesus would become the ultimate way of escape for the whole world.

Bottom Line: I should trust and obey because there's a bigger plan. Like Abraham, God might be asking us to do something that we don't quite understand. But as we read through the Bible, we read about how God has been faithful throughout history. We can trust what we know about God to trust and obey right now.
