

CHRIST Inspired

News from KCC

February 17, 2016

Sunday we considered God's clear, miraculous, and certain signs of the end of the age. When we talk about the end of this age or the second coming of Jesus, it is easy to get caught up in the details as opposed to the fact that He is coming and we need to be ready. As Dennis Hopper's character said in the movie Hoosiers, "Don't get caught watching the paint dry."

This Sunday we close out our "I Vote Jesus" series by also closing out chapter 13 of Mark. I have to warn you that this passage of Scripture may be one of the most convicting passages in the Bible. Bring a friend and come worship Jesus with us! Andy B.

KidStuf is THIS SUNDAY at 11:00am in the Lower Level

In Luke 5:17-26, we find in the life of one paralyzed man who just happened to have some really good friends. When His friends heard that Jesus was in town, they tried everything to get their friend to Jesus. In fact, as friends, they cooperated, tore a hole in a roof, and dropped their friend down in front of Jesus while He was teaching. And as a result of their faith and cooperation a miracle happened.

Bottom Line: We can work together to change someone's life. When we work with others, we not only help them, but we can help God change their life.

By Sara Blasko, Children's Ministry Director

This month, the kids are learning about cooperation on Sundays. Our verse is Ecclesiastes 4:9. It says that 2 are better than 1, because they have a good return for their labor. I love this verse because it shows that if you have a team and you are working towards the same goal, you will reach that goal faster, and it will be done better when you don't try to do it by yourself.

This week at our staff meeting Tim gave me one of the nicest compliments. He said that I've done a good job to create teams of people that are leading our kids in worship and in learning more about God. I know that when I started working here, there was so much that I wanted to do and I quickly realized that I couldn't do it alone. Pride and ego had me try for awhile, but I quickly realized that it wasn't possible. When you have a team with the same goal in mind things are so much better. I am so grateful for the volunteers that are part of my team. They bring things to the kids that I never even thought of! It is awesome to see God working through his people!

I see examples of this everywhere I look. I see the teamwork of our cleaning crew every Thursday. They all have their jobs that they do and they all take pride in their assignments. If they weren't working together for the same goal, what would we walk in to every Sunday morning? If someone came in and ran around with muddy boots while they were trying to mop, would anything be accomplished? Lincoln referenced this verse, most people can quote it, and its in the Bible in 3 different places...A house divided against itself will not stand.

Some of you may read this and it may not mean anything, because your house is not divided. Some of you may live in homes where you experience division in every thing that you do. You may have a battle on your hands with every decision that you make. I urge you to take a step back and try to find a place where you are working together as a team with one goal in mind.

As Christians our goal should be eternal life with our heavenly father. If you can't find a way to make that your big goal, you might want to check your foundation. On house hunters sometimes couples find "the perfect house" only to move in and realize that while it was pretty and in a good location, the foundation was bad. This ends up costing the homeowners dearly. Don't let crown molding and a good school system distract you from looking at the foundation. Just like when you are looking for a mate in life. Don't be distracted by good hair, or a nice smile. Check out the foundation. If its not built on the solid rock of Christ...You may want to keep looking. If you already live in a home with a cracked foundation, hope is not lost! It may take awhile to rebuild, and a lot of work, but it is worth it to rebuild.

With cooperation so much can be done. 2 is better than 1! You will have a good return on your labor. Romans 15:5-6 says, "May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you the same attitude of mind toward each other that Christ had, so that with one mind and one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ." Together with the same goal in mind, we can glorify God!
