

News from KCC

May 10, 2017

This Sunday at KCC!

Thank you for welcoming my friend Tom well. I have heard kind things from you about his message and I listened myself on Monday and as I knew he would, Tom did an awesome job. If you haven't heard his message and especially if you are married, you need to go to kccwired.com and listen or pick up a CD of the sermon in our lobby. Just the two verses that Tom covered show us how relevant the Bible is and the book of Colossians in particular as we see marriages in distress today as they must have been then for Paul to address the topic.

This Sunday we celebrate Mother's Day starting with a verse that every mother will want to underline, highlight, tattoo, frame a picture of, write on bathroom mirrors, or spray paint on their children's walls. Come join us to see which verse I'm talking about on Sunday. Moms remember there will be breakfast at 7:30 for you before first service. Don't worry, the guys will get the kids ready so you can go. Guys, it's okay just this Sunday for the kids to show up with uncombed hair, milk on their face, clothes on inside out, as long as they are smiling. Love you guys! ~ Andy B.

There's No Place Like Home

By Sara Blasko, Children's Ministry Director

We've heard it in the Wizard of Oz, and we've no doubt experienced it ourselves, there is really truly no place like home. Growing up I would go through my school days eagerly anticipating running off the bus and into my mothers arms. It's funny how much "home" means MOM. Mom is a comfort, a solace, a safe place. When I was sick, all my mom had to do was put her hand on my forehead and I would momentarily feel better. Throughout my entire life when I've been going through something rough, after a good talk with Mom, I could conquer the world. There are other places in life that you can experience this Mom feeling.

After 2 cancelled flights trying to get home from L.A. last weekend, Nick and I ended up on a Delta red eye flight back to Detroit. As we settled into our seats an airline steward came by with blankets. That was a Mom feeling. We had such a stressful couple of days and then we had comfort. We had someone taking care of us.

Not everyone has this feeling when they think of Mom. Do not be discouraged by this. Because Jesus is our home. Our comfort and solace. Jesus can take the biggest burdens from us and give us peace. As good as it feels to walk into the comfort of our homes, the peace and joy as we enter Heaven is unimaginable.

I strive everyday to match the example that my mother has shown me. I want to be that Mom feeling for not only my boys, but my friends, my church kids, and anyone else that needs some comfort from the storms of life. In honor of Mother's Day and my Mom -

Proverbs 31:10-31

A wife of noble character who can find? She is worth far more than rubies. Her husband has full confidence in her and lacks nothing of value. She brings him good, not harm, all the days of her life. She selects wool and flax and works with eager hands. She is like the merchant ships, bringing her food from afar. She gets up while it is still night; she provides food for her family and portions for her female servants. She considers a field and buys it; out of her earnings she plants a vineyard. She sets about her work vigorously; her arms are strong for her tasks. She sees that her trading is profitable, and her lamp does not go out at night. In her hand she holds the distaff and grasps the spindle with her fingers. She opens her arms to the poor and extends her hands to the needy. When it snows, she has no fear for her household; for all of them are clothed in scarlet. She makes coverings for her bed; she is clothed in fine linen and purple. Her husband is respected at the city gate, where he takes his seat among the elders of the land. She makes linen garments and sells them, and supplies the merchants with sashes. She is clothed with strength and dignity; she can laugh at the days to come. She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue. She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her: "Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all." Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised. Honor her for all that her hands have done, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate.

KIDSTUF is THIS SUNDAY at 11:00am in the Lower Level for all kids Kindergarten through 5th Grade!

In Acts 10, Peter was a Jewish follower of Jesus. Cornelius was a Roman commander. These two were unlikely friends even in the best of circumstances. But through a couple of visions, these two men were about to cross paths. And through this meeting, Peter discovered the mission Jesus gave the disciples was way bigger than he originally thought.

Bottom Line: Keep going even when the job is bigger than you think. There are times we start a job and soon realize that it will be a much larger endeavor. Our first instinct might be to give up all together, but we need to keep going. With the help of the Holy Spirit, we can push through and show determination right up until the end.
